

Deflector

Touché Amoré

I'm a colorless banner
Flown at half mast
I'm a vessel for
Last contact
I'm a secondhand piano
Incapable of tune
Providing the score
For "gone too soon"

I'll test the water
I won't dive right in
That's too personal
I'm too delicate

I'll test the water
I won't dive right in
I'm not comfortable
I rarely am

Been a sideline voyeur
A conscientious deflector
Been an underpin for Something better
Been faulty poet
A personal arsonist
And a last responder
To my own self interest

Cold-shouldered by design
Sleeping in on borrowed time
Lets sing, just one more

I'm a trapeze act missing contact
A long way down to the floor

I'll test the water
I won't dive right in
That's too personal
I'm too delicate

I'll test the water
I won't dive right in
I'm not comfortable
I rarely am

Been a broken record
A conscientious deflector
Been a sounding board for
An absent savior
Been a faulty poet
An ambivalent nihilist
A last responder
To my own self interest

I won't dive right in
I'm too delicate
I won't dive right in

I'm too delicate

I'll test the water
I won't dive right in
I'm not comfortable
I rarely am
