

Hal Ashby

Touché Amoré

With a rose tinted view
You see clear enough
I don't know if that's true, so allow me to adjust
So I can see things in a new light
It's in the way that I recoil
It's in the way I can shut down
It's why I read into every word that doesn't come from my mouth
A fool's errand, a red herring

Send me off
Send me away
I'll take some time, recalibrate
I'll try anything, anything
If it'll course correct me

I find motive in everything
That's as bad as it sounds
It's why I can take a compliment without turning it around
To even it out

Send me off
Send me away
I'll take some time, recalibrate
I'll try anything, anything
If it'll course correct me
If it'll course correct me
If it'll course correct me

A misguided Hal Ashby catastrophe
Not exactly something you plan to be
You gotta handle it gracefully
A misguided Hal Ashby catastrophe
Not exactly something you plan to be
You gotta handle it gracefully

Send me off
Send me away
I'll take some time, recalibrate
I'll try anything, anything
If it'll course correct me

Send me off
Send me away
I'll take some time, recalibrate
I'll try anything, anything
If it'll course correct me
