

We've got a message and we don't need signs and followers.
We've got a message; "you're all fucked".
We're not in Kansas anymore.
There's a place reserved in hell.
You're going to fit in just fine.
Take that book you've read so wrong.
Stop making it your own.
Learn to be a human being, and show some compassion.
All cults end, take a page from Jonestown.
Drink every drop, let none be wasted.
We'd love to see you in the ground.
