

Start Walking

Tove Styrke

Imagine how good you could feel right now
If I was a stranger
Instead of your baby
We're scary good at letting each other down
If I cut the chains, yeah
You might thank me later

Yeah, we both know what we both need to do
But we just don't want to
Mmm

Say the words
No one wants to say the words
We're holding onto nothing
But nobody here is talking
Say the words
Either way it's gonna hurt
We're staring at the problem
But somebody's gotta start

Walking
I'm walking away
Walking
I'm walking away
Walking, walking, walking

Imagine we woke up in different worlds
With no one to buy back
Maybe you'd like that
I ain't scared of feeling loneliness
I'm scared of watching my life pass
While I make something bad last

Yeah, we both know what we both need to do
But we just don't want to
Mmm

Say the words
No one wants to say the words
We're holding onto nothing
But nobody here is talking
Say the words
Either way it's gonna hurt
But somebody's gotta start

Walking
I'm walking away
Walking
I'm walking away
Walking, walking, walking

I don't wanna hurt you
Don't wanna hurt you
But somebody's got to Got to

Say the words
No one wants to say the words
Say the words

Walking
I'm walking away
Walking
I'm walking away

Walking
I'm walking away
Walking
I'm walking away
