My thought pattern is undescrivable
And I'm holding the world liable
You keep your ears shut cause they'll lie to you and laugh maniacal
And tell you that you're failing whatever you 're trying to do
But it's true as the sky is blue
Talent is undeniable, so if this apply to you I'm hoping that it inspire you
But if not, fuck it live remorseful
It's wise words from the Oracle
The message hidden in the morse code
Lifestyles getting foreclosed, while I find plugs I'm resourceful
Even if opportunities doors close I kick it down
Fuck it I leave your door broke

You gotta take yours
Work hard body your [?]
Stay or, wait on something that ain't yours
People lose, that's the reason that I don't play boy
But I promise I make 'em pay for it

Even when it's hard to see
I feel it coming through my arteries, like it's a part of me
But pardon me, I'm partially [?]
[?] still arguing
