

I had a vision
I tried to warn them, but they didn't listen
So now they view from the sidelines, watching it all come together
It's time for the intervention, It's time for a new religion
I met the stars but I feel the same, come off the plane and it feel different
To come home and feel distant, I'm trapped in my head but swear I'm still in it
And I'ma stay here, so get used to me
Ain't the same person that I used to be but still humanly, we breathe the same air
Looking at the game like a daycare
The team too strong, they like "Towk, you ain't playing fair"
Watch me just manifest, Frankenstein, make it come to life
Float to the skies like Pegasus, I might burn alive
Won't regret my mistake, trust in the sciences
Gotta feel that heat just to know how hot that fire get
And I'ma keep supplying it, because it's high in demand
I got a hunger that could silence the lambs
And if I fail, bet I try it again
They prolly try and attack, they shoot shots bet I fire 'em back
Like "pop, pop, pop"
Hit 'em like oh my god, pull yo' card
Why you tryna act that hard?
So show some proof, want it, we can go there too
That's not the move, been holding back but now I'm 'bout to let it loose

And if you want it, what you tryna do?
And if you got it, then just show me some proof
I just [?]

And really I'm 'bout to let it loose
I'm 'bout to let it loose
Now I'm 'bout to let it loose
Really I'm 'bout to let it loo-
