Well I can't remain no longer I'm headed out to Colorado When t he sun brings in the mornin' I'll be leavin' on my way

Well the grass is growin' green there a warm winds rollin' down the mountain down inside some lonesome canyon that's where I m ean to stay

If you ever come to Denver mama please don't try to find me all you do is just remind me of the way you let me down

Well dreams they're easily shattered but ya got to go on livin' maybe that's the reason I'm Colorado bound
