

Let You Go

Toxi$

You're incompatible
You're unaffordable
But can you tell me
Why should I let you go?
You're incompatible
You're unaffordable
But can you tell me
Why should I let you go?

When I used to call you on the cellphone
You probably didn't know that I was alone
And all the feelings that I had are now gone
I was talking to you in the wrong tone
4 AM in the morning now you callin'
Girl, I'm like a Spider, I keep crawling

Yeah, I knew that I wasn't important
Yeah, I knew that I wasn't important
Yeah, I knew that I wasn't important
Yeah, I knew that I wasn't important, ayy

I thought you were my girl, but you really wasn't, ayy
Ayy, I thought we were a couple, but we really weren't. ayy
I'll be busy workin', I'll be busy workin', ayy
You were busy with those friends, you were busy bustin', ayy

You're incompatible
You're unaffordable
But can you tell me
Why should I let you go?
You're incompatible
You're unaffordable
But can you tell me
Why should I let you go?

Why should I let you go you're moving slow
I'm moving fast look in the past, ayy
I'm sorry that I've been a little distant
Broken down like a car with a little distance, ayy
Heart is in peaces, look at the floor
Love is a feelin' you just ignore
You broke me down, down to my core
If love is an ocean I'm on the shore

You're incompatible
You're unaffordable
But can you tell me
Why should I let you go?
You're incompatible
You're unaffordable
But can you tell me
Why should I let you go?
