

Black Out The Code

Toxic Holocaust

Brainwaves are flowing, computing the world
Adding, subtracting our lives
Artificial emotion, learning to teach
A code created to sense
Fusing together, welding the two
The system running complete
Overloading a circuit with human touch
Man and machine are now one

Passing the signal, the circuits take all that they can
Gave up on life to live in the wires instead
Manufactured addiction injected thru technology
Regression, progression doesn't make any difference to me

Black out the Code
Circuit seduction, turning the whole world
Black out the Code
Binary persuasion, erotic fixation

Mainframe malfunction, the virus has spread
Erasing the code of our lives
A digital tyrant complex and unique
Charged and ready to use
Imbedded, implanted so deep in the wire
Progression, a form of defeat
Serving the server, gave up our free will
A code created to feel

Eradicate
