

Lust For Love

Toyah

(Willcox / Bonacci)

The world's in my veins
My skin holds it in
If the tension breaks
I'll flood you with sin

Oh sweet soul searching
Big ball breaking
The needs too great for giving and taking

What you've done is such a cheap trick
Now douse these flames put out my wick
I'm begging you now
I wanna connect before we fall
What you've done is such a cheap trick
You tied me up in a web of thrift
I'm begging you now to give and let give
To the writing on the wall

I love blue water
I love bright sunshine
I love love when it's naked
I lust for love

There's nothing to say
You've made your effect
Yoy take me apart
I really love your defects

I don't own
I don't dictate
What I like, I want
I must placate

What you've done is such a cheap trick
Tied me up in a web of thrift
I'm begging you now to give and let give
Before we all fall
What you've done is such a cheap trick
Let me o' let me heal this rift
I'm begging you now to live and let live
To the writing on the wall

I love blue water
I love bright sunshine
I love love when it's naked
I lust for love

Make me a heaven
Turn my tears into wine
Give reason to my ranting
Make love with my crimes

I take this paint
I tar the brush
Cast your name in flesh and blood

What you've done is such a cheap trick
Let me o' let me heal this rift
I'm begging you now to live and let live
Before we all fall
Douse these flames put out my wick
I'm telling you now I wanna commit

I love blue water
I lust for love...
