

Rose

TQ

Hey, this thing is living
It's organic in nature, naturally occurring, it's true
I'm witnessing
I'm the presence of greatness, all in my face
I'm at a loss
What could I possibly do for the boss?
What represents a beautiful perfection?
'Cause boy she got it
Pretty on top, tough on the bottom

This is a rose
It means I love you, I do
And as it blooms, I hope you never forget
How much I appreciate you
And you'd never know unless I told you
Deep in my soul is where I hold you
It's just a token so you never forget
How much I appreciate you

Please take this rose, yeah
And I promise, I promise I'ma love you better
I promise I will, I will
I promise I'ma love you better
Hey, do you feel me, do you understand?
This ain't nothing new
I'm just reiterating, I'ma show you
If it kills me, a beautiful plan

Oh, your red dress
And slip on those high heels
I'm on my way to pick you up and baby take you out
So make room for fifteen long stills

This is a rose
It means I love you, I do
And as it blooms, I hope you never forget
How much I appreciate you
And you'd never know unless I told you
Deep in my soul is where I hold you
It's just a token so you never forget
How much I appreciate you
I appreciate you

You ain't gotta worry, don't you doubt it babe
Don't you worry, no doubt about it, girl I only want you
So even if it all falls down, I'ma need you to know

This is a rose
It means I love you, I do
And as it blooms, I hope you never forget
How much I appreciate you
And you'd never know unless I told you
Deep in my soul is where I hold you
It's just a token so you never forget
How much I appreciate you

Take this rose, as a promise

I promise I'ma love you better
I promise I will, I will
I promise I'ma love you better
