

Brenda

Trace Cyrus

Did I let you down
Did I let you down
When I wasn't round?

Jaded is an understatement
Since you left I've been sedated
I got clean from the codeine
Wine and spirits play for keeps
I got attached to your photograph
Tears me apart but it brings me back
Keep breaking hearts in Hollywood
I'm an outlaw, misunderstood

I know you're sick of the same old record
Always spinning today and tomorrow
Our love was borrowed
But I think it deserves a second chance

I lost you on the metro
Smoke and mirrors got me losing my mind
Shed more tears than a southern rain
Leave dead rose petals on my grave
Brenda, yeah you drive me crazy
But I miss my baby tonight

Karma killed a relationship
Go through withdrawals, you're hard to quit
Your body is a masterpiece
Your silhouette, it haunts my dreams
I got hooked, you're my heroin
Be my overdose, I need a therapist
Keep breaking my heart like I knew you would Baby I'm a rebel but I'll treat you good

I know you're sick of the same old record
Always spinning today and tomorrow
Our love was borrowed
But I think it deserves a second chance

I lost you on the metro
Smoke and mirrors got me losing my mind
Shed more tears than a southern rain
Leave dead rose petals on my grave
Brenda, yeah you drive me crazy
But I miss my baby tonight

I wanna drive to the California sunset
But when we talk, it feels like we're strangers now
So is it too late? did I let you down,
When I wasn't around?

I lost you on the metro
Smoke and mirrors got me losing my mind
Shed more tears than a southern rain

Leave dead rose petals on my grave
Brenda, yeah you drive me crazy
But I miss my baby tonight

I lost you on the metro
Smoke and mirrors got me losing my mind
Shed more tears than a southern rain
Leave dead rose petals on my grave
Brenda, yeah you're so amazing
I hope it's not really goodbye
