

Don't Belong Together

Trace Cyrus

I've been drunk on the town
I get high or feel so down
I'm just trying to forget you
I've been in outer space
This other galaxy's a better place
It's where I try to forget you

I was trippin' LSD at the party
The room was spinning, girls were kissing
Then you caught me
I guess I'm caught up with these '70s drugs
I was searching for love but somewhere I lost it

She want a bad boy 'til she got her heart broken
I'm smoking cigarettes and drinking 'til the morning
You're a good girl at heart
Go on and let me go
I hate to let her go, but girl you already know
That we just don't no, we don't belong together
I wanted you forever but you could do better now
We just don't no, we don't belong together
I'd be lying if I said I wouldn't miss you

She put a pill on my tongue
And made me chase it with vodka
She tastes stronger than 80 proof
She's my hippie little sun child
Damn, this girl is so wild
I just need her to get my mind off of you

I was trippin' LSD at the party
The room was spinning, girls were kissing
Then you caught me
I guess I'm caught up with these '70s drugs
I was searching for love but somewhere I lost it

She want a bad boy 'til she got her heart broken
I'm smoking cigarettes and drinking 'til the morning
You're a good girl at heart
Go on and let me go
I hate to let her go, but girl you already know
That we just don't no, we don't belong together
I wanted you forever but you could do better now
We just don't no, we don't belong together
I'd be lying if I said I wouldn't miss you

Don't forget about the good times
We'd stay up 'til the sunrise
Talking in your bed
You'd kiss me on the neck
I know it's in the past but it's something that I'll miss
Then I'd kiss you on the lips
I still feel your fingertips
Now I'm breaking like a bottle and I'm sinking with the ship
Then I'd kiss you on the lips
I still feel your fingertips
Now I'm breaking like a bottle and I'm sinking with the ship

Girl, you're holding me down

She want a bad boy 'til she got her heart broken
I'm smoking cigarettes and drinking 'til the morning (drinking at night)
You're a good girl at heart
Go on and let me go
I hate to let her go, but girl you already know
That we just don't no, we don't belong together
I wanted you forever but you could do better now
We just don't no, we don't belong together
I'd be lying if I said I wouldn't miss you
