

Jealousy

Trace Cyrus

We've been stuck in a fight
Since you stepped off the plane, ay
When I'm with or without you
I'm still going insane, yeah, yeah, yeah

I spend my money on a zip
Then I burn it up real quick
I'm just like that
I'm just like that
We're so far from the West Coast
It's so hard to find the smoke
In this town
I'm losing my mind and you're breaking down

I always promise to change
I'm so stuck in my ways
I'm always staying the same
You could do better
I'm just alone at the bar
I took a shot in the dark
I've been alone from the start
I've been searching forever
For a girl in the city
That gets me always, just make her miss me
Girl, just turn your back around
I don't wanna let you down
We'll break up, I'll get you back
It won't last, I'm sure of that
I'm my own worst enemy
Love turns into jealousy
Love turned to a tragedy

Memories keep wasting away
As I'm killing the pain, ay
I've been tearing up letters
Thinking the right words to say, no, no, no

Burning backwards on the block
She keeps begging me to stop
I just fight back
I just fight back
I've been lost in outer space
All I'm left with is the taste
Of your tongue
I'm losing my mind and I lost the one

I always promise to change
I'm so stuck in my ways
I'm always staying the same
You could do better

I don't wanna let you down
It won't last, I'm sure of that
I'm my own worst enemy

I always promise to change
I'm so stuck in my ways
You could do better
I don't wanna let you down
We'll break up, I'll get you back
It won't last, I'm sure of that
I'm my own worst enemy
