

No Changing Me

Trace Cyrus

Do you want us to last, want us to last

I felt lost in the middle of the night
In the bar by the neon light, it was past 3:30
And New Orleans tonight was burning up like kerosene
At every bar down on Bourbon Street, I'm an outlaw, be my gypsy

I'm not scared of spirits, I'm drowning in the bottle
We may not see tomorrow, let's hide behind these masks
Pins and needles, voodoo, girl I'm stuck on you
But I'm too scared this feeling won't last

You know
It's plain to see, there's no changing me (I'm better on my own)
I know
I need you now, but I'm a rolling stone
You know
It's plain to see, there's no changing me (I'm better on my own)
I know
I need you now, but I'm a rolling stone

I can't help it, I'm jaded
It's so complicated, but I'm missing you bad
You don't want the mistakes, heartbreak
Pretending that it's all okay
You don't want it
You don't want it, yeah

Remember when we broke up next to that graveyard?
In the desert, in the dark, outside Reno, Nevada
We'd the city at one, in the summer heat
Then hitchhiked on down the street, I hear the echoes of your melody

I'm not scared of death, I just saw the reaper
I know that she's a keeper, but I'm living too fast
Smoke and mirrors, I confess that I love you
But I'm just scared this romance won't last (do you want us to last?)

You know
It's plain to see, there's no changing me (I'm better on my own)
I know
I need you now, but I'm a rolling stone
You know
It's plain to see, there's no changing me (I'm better on my own)
I know
I need you now, but I'm a rolling stone

I can't help it, I'm jaded
It's so complicated, but I'm missing you bad
You don't want the mistakes, heartbreak
Pretending that it's all okay
You don't want it
You don't want it, yeah

You know
It's plain to see, there's no changing me
I know

I need you now, but I'm a rolling stone
