In Love With Insanity

Tracedawn

Make your move on me. queen of confusion With open arms I await Let me feel your love upon me Your arms around me You called my name at the darkest of moments And gave me a will of my own

I'll keep you locked away
I'll keep you for me

You are my mistress. I am your slave Alliance eternal. together we exist Silence of mind I could not bare Without your voice I'll go insane

Keep me safe. keep me sane

My headechoes your now silent words In white sheets I lay. silent and pale Our love was true. our love was pure Did it mean nothing to you You kept me safe. you kept me sane And took it all away

You left me all alone To the mercy of the world

Keep me safe. keep me sane
