Taking Down the Tree

Tracey Thorn

Careful one by one, it is undone
Seems before it's over it's begun
Another broken rain in another candle
Another velvet ribbon, another nose breathe

Winding up the light
You said we start so high
So high, so high, so high

Careful as we go into the snow
Seems it's icing over from below
Another splinter angel, another snow glow
Another silver course, it's understanding

Winding up the light
We said we start so high
So high, so high, so high
So high, so high, so high

So high
(So high, so high, so high)
So high
(So high, so high, so high)
So high
