

Have a Good One

Tracy Byrd

Have a good one she told me
As she walked away
What a fine time to tell me
To have a nice day
She's gone now but the words she said
Still linger on and on
Have a good one, thought I had one,
I guess I was wrong

She could have said I'm sorry
Or darlin' please don't cry
But now there's tears each time
I hear that cheerful goodbye
It's over but over and over
It echoes all night long
Have a good one, thought I had one,
I guess I was wrong

She could have said I'm sorry
Or darlin' please don't cry
But now there's tears each time
I hear that cheerful goodbye
It's over but over and over
It echoes all night long
Have a good one, thought I had one,
I guess I was wrong

Have a good one, thought I had one,
I guess I was wrong
