

I Hope I Don't Wake Up

Trade Wind

I had this dream about you
We sat under the arroyo willow trees
You took your clothes off then you looked at me and said
"When I lie alone I hope I don't wake up again"

I hope you hate me, after everything
I still hope you hate me
(I hope you hate me)
I hope you hate me, after everything
I hope you hate me

When I lie alone I hope I don't wake up
When I lie alone I hope I don't wake up

I hope I don't wake up again
I hope I don't wake up again
When I lie alone I hope I don't wake up
When I lie alone I hope I don't wake up
When I lie alone I hope I don't wake up
When I lie alone I hope I don't wake up
