'Cause they witnessed him with his head down
Not knowin' he was just bein' thankful for the victory

I felt like it was me against the world, why they count me out?
Devil put my spot up for eviction, who gon' take me out? (Who?)
Watched the world laugh at me, crackin' jokes, ain't know the half (Man)

Head pointed at the ground, they done thought I gave it up
They had it wrong, me and God was plannin' how to raise me up (Yeah)
Hate was even stronger when they feel you on the way to win

Why they build me up to tear me down? Just to build me up again
Witness God, He place the crown, I'm His child
