

Im Here

Trae

Ain't gon' let 'em get away, I'm on they heels (I'm on they heels)

Every night, I talk to God, I'm tryna heal (I'm tryna heal)

I hate to say, it ain't too many keep it real (Keep it real)

They throwin' everything they got, I'm a bear (I'm a bear)

I'm here now, I'm here now

I'm here now, I'm here now

Lately I been feelin' like the temper on me 'bout to blow
If they tell they self that I ain't winnin', they forgot the score

Guess they mad they time was runnin' out like it was time to go

Crazy, what's the reason for they hatin'? I'm just tryna know

Ask me, that's the type of shit that make 'em look weak

Mad that I'm a million-dollar nigga, they just look cheap

Niggas know this hustle stay on woke, them niggas look sleep

Actin' like they really makin' noise, they ass a lil' beat

Better know my pockets known to sink, that shit might get deep

Know I play the game like it's the playoffs, don't get swept

Every diamond on me do the talkin', this shit speak

Waitin' on a spot, you ass gon' get leaped, on everything

I'm here now

I'm here now

I'm here now, I'm here now

I'm here now, I'm here now

Think I'm lookin' for the beef, I got another steak

Patiently waited, now the streets got another great

They got me in the crates, I'm just tryna vibe out

Them niggas still be stuck in buckets, I done climbed out

Thinkin' 'bout my brother Nip', I been on this marathon

Everything 'bout me was presidential like the Pentagon

The way they fake it 'til they make it, call it rent-a-thon

I done got they attention, money intercom

Ain't gon' let 'em get away, I'm on they heels (I'm on they heels)

Every night, I talk to God, I'm tryna heal (I'm tryna heal)

I hate to say, it ain't too many keep it real (Keep it real)

They throwin' everything they got, I'm a bear (I'm a bear)

I'm here now, I'm here now

I'm here now, I'm here now
