

Let It Go

Trae

Some people that you love was destined to get to switchin'
Loyal to attention, they riskin' it for a mention
How they say they love you, but randomly get to dissin'?
Realizin' some shit ain't worth fixin', gotta let 'em go Ever tell them no and they gon' show you how they really feel Feel like they entitled, how they movin', I don't really feel
Action of a snake, but yet it's crazy 'cause they really skille d

And I was tryna really build
Wanna see me hurt and I ain't did them nothin'
Any day, return the favor, they know I ain't bluffin'
I seen too many lose they life, paranoid, I'm clutchin' Heard the devil somewhere losin', probably why he fussin' (Fuck him, though)
Who give a damn 'bout what you goin' through, it don't apply to them
If they wanna fake it when you're dead, why would I try with th em?

Problems been stackin', I had to step alone
Ain't no callin' for help, they can't connect the phone Needin' better days, I ain't seen 'em in a while Reachin' out to God, I been needin' for my child Destined for the top, but yet I'm way beneath the pile
Couple of homies waitin' on trial
Told them hold it in Yeah, ain't no givin' up for shit
Any sign of weakness, they gon' come and get you quick
They can form the weapon, up to you, don't let it stick
God say I'm gon' win, just as long as I don't quit Had a child with somebody I ain't really know, had to live and learn
Somehow got a blessin' from that lesson, I won't crash and burn
Speak of me, they say I'm chosen, the title, I earned Tryna understand my mission, I just wait my turn
I watched so many go against me
Never even spoke, save your breath, you can't convince me
I don't need the pack, I been big alone
Searchin' for a chance, you just did it wrong
Better wake up (Better wake up)

Like some of the stuff I be sayin'
It don't even make me upset no more
Tryna master bein' unbothered
Emotion is a sign of weakness, they say
So I gotta show 'em I really don't give a damn
Know what I'm talkin' 'bout?

God first, the only way
