

Letter 2 Truth Pt.2

Trae

Hello? Hello? How are you?
Just sittin' here
Have you talked to your people?
Man, everybody's doing everything they can
But you're holding on, right?
Trying (Yeah)
Uh
You have to, you're doing this for Truth

On my knees, I've been talkin' to God
Wanna be strong, but I swear it was hard
By myself somewhere countin' these days away
So many tears, got me feeling I'm made to pray
Thinkin' of you, I just gotta be great
You're lookin' for me, I don't wanna be late
I know you hid, I'ma help you escape
They lied to you, I been dealin' with hate
You ain't gotta worry 'bout it, I'm comin' to get you
Wanna smile, but I know they gon' mess up the picture
Every morning, I got GT readin' me scriptures
I been waitin' on the call, I hope I don't miss you
Every day, I been lookin' for you
Houston been lookin' for you, granny been lookin' for you
Nico been lookin' for you, yeah, everyone lookin' for you
I done been tryna hide it, but nothing get put before you
I just wanna hold you, tell you I love you
I ain't been able to eat, been able to function
I ain't been able to work, been able to sleep
Everything they doin' to me a different discussion
You gotta know you mean the world to me
It never be another girl with me
You my first love, daddy's baby
All I know is what I'm goin' through is kinda crazy

I been holdin' on
You know you all I got
I been tryin' (Tryin' to find you)
For you, I'm never gon' stop (Yeah)
They got my back against the wall (They won't make me stop)
Won't ignore your call
I won't let us fall (They won't break me down)
And if they think we not (No)
They won't take what we've got

All this hurt I been hidin' away
Lookin' at my phone, I been cryin' today
How I'm 'posed to be tough? You been away
And the way they got me feelin', I don't know what to say
I really wish that I can hug you, hold you close
Just to see you smile, make my day
Hop in the whip and ride, me and you
Just to hit a couple of corners and go'n play
Post up, might do us a TikTok
And I'ma let the world know you my best friend
Ain't no mistake, you my best friend
Go, Truth, that's my best friend
Every memory I got, I'm holdin' on

Kinda sad that I'm doin' this song
No matter what they do, it's me and you
I'ma always be here for you until I'm gone

I been holdin' on
You know you all I got
I been tryin' (Tryin' to find you)
For you, I'm never gon' stop (Yeah)
They got my back against the wall (They won't make me stop)
Won't ignore your call
I won't let us fall (They won't break me down)
And if they think we not (No)
They won't take what we've got
