

Sky Scraper

Trae

Yeah
I'm so high, I can fly
If you left me alone, I'd still be fine
I'd still be fine
This real shit
If you left me alone, I'd still be fine

business, ain't it
Tryna keep it smooth, get you situated
You know my street credit high, never missed a payment
I stack the same when I made it, niggas wish that I
I stack the same when I made it, niggas hate, they hate it
Couple bitches want me back, they sick, they scared
It's an automatic chopper, spray
It ain't waht you tryna say, but it's how you be saying it
I wear designer on the regular, that's how I be playing it
I could fly her out to
You can acomplish any goal, it's all with the plan
I do this shit perfect, as if I had plans

I'm so high, I can fly
Yeah
This a skyscraper loft, throw a party in the sky
Yeah
I'ma need you nowhere else, except by my side
Yeah
If you left me alone, I'll still be fine

Yeah
I gave a fuck 'bout what these niggas talking
Their conversation was dead, it's like they in a coffin we violate often
And while they out here playing hard, I bet I get them soffened
Reminiscing 'bout the homies who ain't coming back Fuck they at?
Running through my feelings like a running back
Take it back
Now I'm on my knees calling for them, they ain't calling back
Now you out the way, them niggas switching, got me falling back
I dropped the bag on that Maybach Benz
I can make the perfect picture, nigga, take your lense
If they loyal to my money, probably take they friends
And I ain't stupid, they can kick rocks, break they 50 K across the wrist, how the fuck I feeling whip ain't got no top, it got a fucked up ceiling diamonds, all this shit I'm killing
Being broke, it ain't much of a feeling
Feel like I'm in the sky
Too many niggas I done lost, but I still can't cry
I was good, long as you right by my side
You ain't real, ain't no point of being
On my side
That's why I stay on go
On my soul
Hop inside this whip
Can't slow down

I'm so high, I can fly
Yeah
This a skyscraper loft, throw a party in the sky
Yeah
I'ma need you nowhere else, except by my side
Yeah
If you left me alone, I'll still be fine
