

Cannot Rest in Peace

Tragic Black

After all of these years, after so much time
What has brought us here, to the end of the line?
Out for discovery, out to seize the day
Out to make a difference in every single way
We made a promise deep inside
To transform the blackest darkness into the brightest light

We cannot rest in peace
We're living in the dream
We will not turn our backs
'Cause this is tragic

Quickening the pace, there is no empty space
Just break out of your mind, destroy illusions, break out of time
In every action, in every sight, no matter where or how, it's inside
The eternal now is complete. The eternal now at peace

Soul!

We cannot rest in peace
We're living in the dream
We will not turn our backs
'Cause this is tragic
We cannot rest in peace
We cannot rest in peace
We cannot rest in peace
'Cause this is tragic. Yeah

Whispered:
In this cycle with increasing pace
Our Kundalini has shifted place
What this means is you can bring about change
In so many ways

We cannot rest in peace
We cannot rest in peace

We cannot rest in peace
We're living in the dream
We will not turn our backs
'Cause this is tragic
We cannot rest in peace
We cannot rest in peace
We cannot rest in peace
'Cause this is tragic
Well this is tragic. You're...
Tragic. You're...
Well, this is tragic!
This is tragic. You're
This is tragic black!
