

Collapse

Tragic Black

Don't want to go down strapped to a bomb
Don't want to fight over who's right or wrong
Don't force ideas down anyone's throat
All this misery is making us choke
They say that we breathe the foul air
Proponents of onslaught and total despair
They say we're the makers of our demise
Change begins within, spark the light inside