Tragic Black

Take me away into the night
Look into the mirror, look into my eyes
Fall into the darkness, fall into the light
Take me away into the night
Take me away into the night
Look into the mirror, look into my eyes
Fall into the darkness, fall into the light
Take me away into the night

Take me away. Away

Sinking deeper into hallowed ground
Shaking and twitching without any sound
Buried below a headstone, six feet underground
Crying like a banshee, feel a chilling, piercing drown
Reach out of your coffin, rise out of the ground
Walk out of the graveyard in a black burial gown
Six feet underground, six feet underground, six feet underground
Take me away into the night
Look into the mirror, look into my eyes
Fall into the darkness, fall into the light
Take me away into the night
Take me away into the night
