

The Plot to Destroy the World

Tragic Black

I'd like to tear out your veins
So you can see them in my hands
Show you who you are and all you tear apart
You are a curse upon this land
See this mess? You confess
And you lie so openly
Take the test, act your best
Sinful treachery

It's the plot to destroy the world
It's the plot to destroy the world
It's the plot to destroy the world
It's the plot to destroy the world

Enough is enough. Spit out the poison and spill again
Coughing blood, clotting up, there is no time to pretend
Gut the fuck, tear him up. The only way of shutting it up
Rip out the razor, detonate the bomb
You always explode inside then you do us wrong

It's the plot to destroy the world
It's the plot to destroy the world
It's the plot to destroy the world
It's the plot to destroy the world

We're going to take where the slit wrists bleed
Narrow it down to the pain you need
Cross your heart as we stab it deep
Why do you have to be so discrete?
Shelter yourself. It just means nothing
No one can hide from what's coming!
I'll see you die and maybe I'll cry
It's better to know than to ask why

It's the plot to destroy the world
It's the plot to destroy the world
It's the plot to destroy the world
It's the plot to destroy the world

You can't destroy the world!
You can't destroy the world!
You can't destroy the world!

You cannot destroy
