

Brokenhearted

Train

I been lonely, waiting by the phone
No one calling, drinking on my own
Seven days a week I've spent them alone
And I know you're not coming home

Wohooo
The other night I heard our song
Wohooo
Had to tell the driver turn it off
Woohooo
You don't know love until it's gone
And all I wanna know

What can heal the brokenhearted?
Someone help me out
Do hearts still work when they're not wanted
Can someone tell me now?
Could it love again?
Or is it left for dead?
I wish my mama said
'Cause I just don't know
What can heal the brokenhearted?
Can someone tell me now?

I still sleep on your side of the bed
Whiskey dreams and too many cigarettes
You're the reason that I've got nothing left
'Cause I know you're not coming home
