

Mittens

Train

I was looking for love
Like I was looking for another hole in my head
Frozen tundras never wonder how to get warm
We just drift into the night instead

Hold up, you said "I ain't crazy"
You think that just maybe
We're supposed to be

It's cold to be alone
And my heart is accident prone
Unfreeze this frozen lady
And put on them mittens, baby
I... I'm your mittens, baby
I... I'm your mittens, love

There you stood in the morning
Just putting on your makeup in the front of the mirror
Damn, you know I was torn then
I been through enough in the last couple years

Hold up, you think you've seen crazy
Bless your heart, come on, baby
Show's about to start

It's cold to be alone
And my heart is accident prone
I'm cold but I ain't shady
So put on them mittens, baby
I... I'm your mittens, baby
I... I'm your mittens, love

Wait until the feeling takes over
You won't know what road now
You're supposed to go down
It's like a drug
Just wait until the feeling takes over
You won't know what hit you, baby
It's gonna fit you like mittens, love

It's cold to be alone
And my heart is accident prone
Unfreeze this frozen lady
And put on them mittens, baby
I... I'm your mittens, baby
I... I'm your mittens, love

It's cold to be alone
And my heart is accident prone
I'm cold but I ain't shady
So put on them mittens, baby
Wait until the feeling takes over
(I... I'm your mittens, baby)
I'm your mittens, baby, yeah yeah
(I... I'm your mittens, love)
