

Blue Hour

Transviolet

Sirens
Pink and orange sky
I get
Nervous when things get too quiet

I'm running like hell
A blur in the blue hour
Throwing myself
Into the night
And I
Crash into you
And get in a car
Take me somewhere new
Take me anywhere

Isn't it funny
We hurt who we're close to
I kept a secret
I wasn't supposed to

Hold me together
So I don't unravel
We're losing light
And I'm losing the battle with you
Here in the blue
(Losing the light, losing the light, losing the light again)
Here in the blue hour
(Losing the fight, losing the light, losing the light again)

It's all
Falling apart
Stencil
Tracing my villain arc

I'm running like hell
A blur in the blue hour
Throwing myself
Into the night
And I
Crash into you
And get in a car
Take me somewhere new
Take me anywhere

Isn't it funny
We hurt who we're close to
I kept a secret
I wasn't supposed to

Hold me together
So I don't unravel
We're losing light
Here in the blue
(Losing the light, losing the light, losing the light again)
Here in the blue hour
(Losing the light, losing the light, losing the light again)

I kept a secret
I wasn't supposed to
