

Kaleidoscopes

Transviolet

Up against the wall I don't know what I'm saying
Why is it so hard to believe it'll be okay?

Feels like all is lost, I don't know what to do
I'm probably gonna cry, I can't hide it from you

'Cause something in your eyes like kaleidoscopes
Takes the saddest part and makes it beautiful
Colors in my head with your hips on mine
Colors in my head explode just like

Standing in the dark why do I get the feeling
It's all coming down and no one has a vague idea

Feels like all is lost, my world turns a dark grey
I'm probably gonna cry, your love makes it okay

'Cause something in your eyes like kaleidoscopes
Takes the saddest part and makes it beautiful
Colors in my head with your hips on mine
Colors in my head explode just like

They say our love is glass
Never gonna fare the storm
They say we're gonna break
What the hell do they know?
And burning up the place
Think prisms in my brain
You're some phenomenon
Got my hands along your hips
Now she want a tight grip
Eyes closing when we kiss
It's just me and you, babe
Lights flashing real quick
Goosebumps and the chills
Tell me this shit's real
Baby, this is real

'Cause something in your eyes like kaleidoscopes
Takes the saddest part and makes it beautiful (makes it beautiful)
Colors in my head with your hips on mine (hips on mine)
Colors in my head explode just like
