

Life Is Good

Transviolet

I'm running away
Running faster til my body catches my brain
I'm crying again
It doesn't matter
We're all stardust in the end

It's not burning down
Not a happy ending
Not a bigger house
Not us pretending
Its bank accounts
And internet friends
Without a doubt
We're all pretending

It all works out like it should
Who said it would?

Life is good
Life is good

I'm skipping ahead
Skipping faster than the time bomb ticking in my chest
Now I'm spiraling again
Doesn't matter it's all just a passing trend

It's not burning down
Not a happy ending
Not a bigger house
Not us pretending

It all works out like it should
Who said it would?

Life is good
Life is good

Maybe I'll just die here in Los Angeles
A modern televangelist
A pseudo sadomasochist
Posing as an anarchist
Losing all her common sense
Don't worry when the panic sets
Don't worry babe, don't panic
I'll be dancing for my phone
No, I'll never be alone
No, I'll never be alone
No, I'll never be alone
No, I'll never be alone

Life is good
Life is good
Life is good
