

Lost Frequency

Transviolet

White noise inside my head
Sometimes I do feel bad
Things fell apart too quickly
Don't hear no phonecall ringin'
Can't hear your voice still singin'
We fell apart too quickly

How callous time can be
Leaves distance in between
No signal reaches me, yeah

I've lost all frequency
We don't talk frequently
No more, yeah
No more, yeah
Think we both know secretly
There's no real reason
To hold on, yeah
Hold on, yeah

Lost frequency
You're a lost frequency
Lost frequency
You're a lost frequency

Still I see your face in pictures
I see your smile looks different
Things fell apart too quickly
Same place but different figures
Bittersweet, I'm not with you
For a moment boy I think I miss you

How callous time can be
Leaves distance in between
No signal reaches me, yeah

I've lost all frequency
We don't talk frequently
No more, yeah
No more, yeah
Think we both know secretly
There's no real reason
To hold on, yeah
Hold on, yeah

Lost frequency
You're a lost frequency
Lost frequency
You're a lost frequency

I've lost all frequency
We don't talk frequently
No more, yeah
No more, yeah
Think we both know secretly
There's no real reason
To hold on, yeah

Hold on, yeah
