

Love Spell

Transviolet

Close your eyes and dream of me
Wake up and you'll reach for me
I'm a silver pool in your hands
When I'm gone you'll beg for me
Missing me unbearably
Worshipping the ground where I stand

I'll consume you entirely
I'll ruin you
You'll cry for me

You want more
You want more more more
You want more
You want more more more

You can't run from me
Hide from me
I bet you'd give your life for me
And I'll take you for all you that came for
You want more
You want more more more

In a stare I'll never break
Keep you here keep you awake
What a pretty web that I weave
Fatal shot from cupid's bow
Are you sure you're in control?
Or do you belong to me?

I'll consume you entirely
I'll ruin you
You'll cry for me

You want more
You want more more more
You want more
You want more more more

You can't run from me
Hide from me
I bet you'd give your life for me
And I'll take you for all you that came for
You want more
You want more more more
