Nice To Know Ya

Transviolet

She smiles like she has a secret
You wanna know it, know it
Said she's here for the weekend
She got you going (going)

She crush a bit and roll it up
Singing Girls Just Wanna Have Fun
She crush a bit and roll it up
Singing Girls Just Wanna Have Fun

You melt when she says your name
She moves and your heart aches
She's candy meltin' in your hand
Oh, wow, there's no going back

It's been nice to know ya
It's been nice to know ya

She's in it, some kinda mischief
Telling your fortune, fortune
She speaks like her royal highness
Our lady torture (torture)

She crush a bit and roll it up
Singing Girls Just Wanna Have Fun
She crush a bit and roll it up
Singing Girls Just Wanna Have Fun

You melt when she says your name
She moves and your heart aches
She's candy meltin' in your hand
Oh, wow, there's no going back

It's been nice to know ya
It's been nice to know ya
It's been nice to know ya
It's been nice to know ya
It's been nice to know ya

You melt when she says your name

You melt when she says your name
She moves and your heart aches
She's candy meltin' in your hand
Oh, wow, there's no going back

It's been nice to know ya
It's been nice to know ya
It's been nice to know ya
It's been nice to know ya
It's been nice to know ya
