

Softcore

Transviolet

Playing with a short fuse
Got my sabertooth stare
That could take you out
Never seen softer
Chainmail armor
I know how to cut em down

But with you I let it
Unapologetically drop
All defenses now
I can be a menace
But you kinda get it
So we put our weapons down

And under your finger tips
Golden sparks fly
Light up my skin in the darkest of nights
With you I'm safe
Feeling so high
You kiss me and everything melts

In the softcore
Kiss me and everything melts
In the softcore
Kiss me and everything melts away

I cling to my habits
Convince you I'm tough
But I'm acting
And I'm a good actress

The truth is I'm panicking
Hoping the next manic episode
Gets me where I'm going
With you I let it
Unapologetically drop
All defenses now

I know
I can be a menace
But you kinda get it
So we put our weapons down

And under your finger tips
Golden sparks fly
Light up my skin in the darkest of nights
With you I'm safe
Feeling so high
You kiss me and everything melts

In the softcore
Kiss me and everything melts
In the softcore

Pin me to the floor
Never let me go

Tell me that I'm yours
Tell me I'm the one, one that you adore

Pin me to the floor
Tell me that I'm yours (kiss me and everything melts away)
Tell me I'm the one, one that you adore

Pin me to the floor
Tell me that I'm yours
Tell me I'm the one, one that you adore

Pin me to the floor
Tell me that I'm yours
Tell me I'm the one, one that you adore
(Kiss me and everything melts away)

And under your finger tips
With you I'm safe
Feeling so high

In the softcore
In the softcore
