

Sunshine

Transviolet

Maybe I wake up and get high
Runaway, go chase some daylight
If they ask, then tell them I'm
Somewhere lost in the sunshine

Mistaking certainty for clarity
Drinking our iced coffee
Slide our plastic
Isn't success so elastic?
There you go
End right back at the beginning
Is anyone really winning?
What's the purpose
If there's not one
Is it worthless? I don't know

Guess we're alive
Might as well enjoy it
Let's take a ride
So what if it's pointless?
Guess we're alive
Might as well enjoy it
Let's take a ride

Maybe I wake up and get high
Runaway, go chase some daylight
If they ask, then tell them I'm
Somewhere lost in the sunshine

Maybe I wake up and get high
Runaway, go chase some daylight
If they ask, then tell them I'm
Somewhere lost in the sunshine

(Maybe I wake up
Somewhere lost in the sunshine
Maybe I wake up
Somewhere lost in the sunshine)

Yeah, maybe it's a simulation
For our entertainment
Life keeps happening
It's absurd and sometimes glamorous
Now and then
When the universe collapses
None of it will even matter
For all I know
Maybe it did, so long ago
Wonder when

Guess we're alive
Might as well enjoy it
Let's take a ride
So what if it's pointless?
Guess we're alive
Might as well enjoy it
Let's take a ride

Maybe I wake up and get high
Runaway, go chase some daylight
If they ask, then tell them I'm
Somewhere lost in the sunshine

Maybe I wake up and get high
Runaway, go chase some daylight
If they ask, then tell them I'm
Somewhere lost in the sunshine

(Maybe I wake up
Somewhere lost in the sunshine
Maybe I wake up
Somewhere lost in the sunshine)

Maybe I wake up and get high
Runaway, go chase some daylight
If they ask, then tell them I'm
Somewhere lost in the sunshine
