

This Is The Feeling

Transviolet

Take it all away
I don't wanna face it
Tell me what to say
Can any words erase it?
As I feel my world burn around me
And wait for the flames to surround me

I guess this is the feeling of falling hard
And facing all your demons
I guess this is the feeling of spinning out, into the outer limits
I guess this is the feeling
The cards are down
My heart is out in pieces
I guess this is the feeling
I guess this is the feeling

I need you to stay
Hold me 'til it's over
Tell me it's okay
And kiss me on my shoulders

As I feel your arms wrap around me
It takes hold, I let go, it drowns me

I guess this is the feeling of falling hard
And facing all your demons
I guess this is the feeling of spinning out, into the outer limits
I guess this is the feeling
The cards are down
My heart is out in pieces
I guess this is the feeling
I guess this is the feeling

I guess this is the feeling

I guess this is the feeling
I guess this is the feeling

I guess this is the feeling
Of falling hard and facing all your demons
I guess is the feeling of spinning out into the outer limits
I guess this is the feeling
The clouds are dark
My heart is all in pieces
I guess this is the feeling
I guess this is the feeling

I guess this is the feeling
I guess this is the feeling

(I need you to stay)
(Tell me it's okay)
