

Dead Inside

Trapped Under Ice

From time to time
You slip through the cracks of my mind
I try
But I just can't keep my hard feelings inside
(It's safe) It's safe to say (to say)
(Hard feelings inside) Too many times I've walked away
Dead inside
Dead inside
I tried but I just can't keep my hard feelings inside
I said I wouldn't react
I said I wouldn't go back to that place
I can't control my rage
I turned my back on that and then I ran so far away
Feelings are hard
Feelings are hard
Feelings are hard
Feelings are hard for me
