

Throw It Away

Trapped Under Ice

So let down again
Been deceived by a friend
Now I know you're not cut out
Had your chance
Just shut your mouth

You can't take the pressure
You can't take the pain
Don't appreciate the effort

You just throw it away

Not this time
Won't be no fool
Got no pity to give to you
I know you're weak
I know you'll fold
Now you do just what you're told
