

Too True

Trapped Under Ice

Too true
What can I do?
All your dreams have been stolen from you
Don't know what I've been living for
Every day my breath gets shorter
Life is short and I've lived life deceived
Now I got to live my life for me
Please believe, I'm not a slave to no man
Breaking the law, living fast as I can
Speak my mind, I cannot hide
From the thoughts of my own mind
I feel a thousand hands tearing me apart
I can't meet your demand, I have nothing to offer
Everyday my walk gets harder
In this life nothing comes for free
So I'm taking back what's been taken from me
Please believe, I'm not a slave to no man
Breaking the law, living fast as I can
Speak my mind, I cannot hide
From the thoughts of my own mind
Everyday my breathe gets short
I give you nothing
Please believe me
I'm taking back what's been taken from me
