Alibi

Trapt

Don't be ashamed,
Closing your weary eyes,
Nervous and in disguise,
Covered in white lies.

Don't be afraid,
No reason to run and hide,
You know I'm on your side.

How much do you have to cover up?
What have you done?
How much do you have to cover up?
Where will you run?
Lookin' for an alibi,
Searchin' for some peace of mind,
It's all in your head,
So start this over again.
You're lookin' for an alibi,
Searchin' for some peace of mind,
It's all in your head,
So start this over again.

No-one to blame,
You know your hands are tied,
Feelin' so paralyzed,
Walkin' on fine lines.

There must be a way,
To not have to analyze,
Live without thinking twice.

How much do you have to cover up?
What have you done?
How much do you have to cover up?
Where will you run?
Lookin' for an alibi,
Searchin' for some peace of mind,
It's all in your head,
So start all over again.
You're lookin' for an alibi,
Searchin' for some peace of mind,
It's all in your head,
So start all over again.
