

Can't Look Away

Trapt

Slow moving train
Rolling off the rails again
Storms coming in
Couldn't be that far from the end

Can't look away
Look at all the horror
A red rain parade
Can't look away
Somewhere in the sorrow
A match starts a flame
Can't look away
As the house that we have built
Starts to cave
Can't look away
As the walls are tumbling
No one's safe
Can't look away

Here comes the flood
We can see the cracks in the dam
It's all breaking loose
After this there's no coming back

Can't look away
Look at all the horror
A red rain parade
Can't look away
Somewhere in the sorrow
A match starts a flame
Can't look away
Starts to cave
Can't look away
As the walls are tumbling
No one's safe
Can't look away

So much to lose
And we won't see that until it's gone
We all been used
And now we don't know where we belong

Can't look away
Look at all the horror
A red rain parade
Can't look away
Somewhere in the sorrow
A match starts a flame
Can't look away
Starts to cave
Can't look away
As the walls are tumbling
No one's safe
Can't look away
Can't run away

As we reap what we have sewn
No escape
Can't look away
As the fire starts to grow
Into rage
There's no restraint
All up in flames
Can't look away
