

Drop Your Guard

Trapt

Been high enough to come down
Felt joy gave way to pain
Sleeping with the enemy
Became the only way
Feelings might disarm you
Make it harder to defend
The broken heart you carry
The one you won't let me protect

You won't be dethroned
Or overthrown
An army of one
Will not surrender
No letting go
Of that old ego
I wonder what's
Underneath the armor
Drop your guard
Lay your weapons down
I didn't come here
Looking for war
Drop your guard

You keep it confidential
Watching everything you say
They'll use it all against you
If you put it on display
Hiding in your inhibitions
Lies a deeper part of you
Held under your supervision
Like a POW

You won't be dethroned
Or overthrown
An army of one
Will not surrender
No letting go
Of that old ego
I wonder what's
Underneath the armor
Drop your guard
Lay your weapons down
I didn't come here
Looking for war
Drop your guard
Disarm
Drop your guard
Disarm
Like I already did
For you

You won't be dethroned
Or overthrown
An army of one
Will not surrender
No letting go
Of that old ego

I wonder what's
Underneath the armor
Drop your guard
Lay your weapons down
I didn't come here
Looking for war
Drop your guard
Disarm
Drop your guard
Disarm
I already did
For you
