

Unforgiven

Trapt

You are unforgiven

You couldn't hide it, couldn't fight it
Your eyes give you away
You had a secret, couldn't keep it
Now we'll never be the same

You're a slave to the voice inside your head
You know you can't lie to your conscience
Now you got a hole in your life to spend in
Living with the consequences

You are unforgiven
Your hands can never be washed clean
You can't be forgiven
You'll get no mercy out of me
You are unforgiven
Save all of your apologies
It won't make a difference
You are unforgiven

How should I feel, never real
Can't pretend what's wrong is right
All you conceal is revealed
Now I'm leaving you behind

You're a slave to the voice inside your head
You know you can't lie to your conscience
Now you got a hole in your life to spend in
Living with the consequences

You are unforgiven
Your hands can never be washed clean
You can't be forgiven
You'll get no mercy out of me
You are unforgiven
Save all of your apologies
It won't make a difference
You are unforgiven

I can't forgive you
But I can try and forget you
And try and forgive myself
And try and forget what you put me through
I can't forgive you
But I can try and forget you
And try and forgive myself
And try and forget what you put me through
What you put me through
What you put me through

You are unforgiven
Your hands can never be washed clean
You are unforgiven

It won't make a difference
You are unforgiven
