

Delusions Of Grandeur

Trash Boat

You made your bed, now choke on it
Delusions of grandeur have made me sick
And I'm sick of this sickness we've all been romanticized
The pride, the lies, it's a sign of the times
Our leaders have ignorance weaponized
While everyone's waiting to begin the rest of their lives

I just wanna change the world
But I don't know where to begin
I've already changed myself, yeah
A different me every weekend

I'm gonna try a death bed repent, see if it's worth it
Trying to be humble is defeating the purpose
Got it let it all hang out, I'm naked
Hungry but patient, content, not complacent

I feel like a failure
I'm sorry I tried
Why do I apologize?

I just wanna change the world
But I don't know where to begin
I've already changed myself, yeah
A different me every weekend

I'm working hard for money
So I can live my life
I hate that I want everything
It makes me wanna die

I just wanna change the world
But I don't know where to begin
I've already changed myself, yeah
A different me every weekend
