Hello and welcome to Idios

I'm obsessed with my breath, I'm depressed, can I leave?
I can go where I want, but I'll never be free

I digress, I'm impressed you digest this disease
You can eat what you want, just don't feed it to me

Hello and welcome to idios
There are a couple things I think you should know
So we become the things we can't let go, so
Hello and welcome to idios
There are a couple things I think you should know
So we become the things we can't let go, so (I can't escape this hell I've c reated)

(I can't escape this hell I've created)

You want a spectacle, you can have it
I am susceptible to every bad habit
Everything hurts less when you want it
So give it all (Have you got it?)

Hello and welcome to Idios
There are a couple things I think you should know so
So we become the things we can't let go, so (I can't escape this hell I've c reated)
Hello and welcome to Idios
There are a couple things I think you should know so
What you lose is what you owe (I can't escape this hell I've created
I can't erase myself and I hate it)

Help me
Get me out
Don't let me slip into a coma

Help me
Please get me out
Don't let me slip into a coma
