

Maladaptive Daydreaming

Trash Boat

I deserve it
I sold my soul after I cursed it
You should know by now that I'm not perfect
Used to feel so pure now I'm perverted
Was it worth it?

Cut my nose to spite my face
Pulling teeth just to spite my taste
Beautiful to my mum at least
Beautiful to my mum at least
Beautiful to my mum at least

If you're looking, you can find me
Hiding behind things that no one needs
Lately I've been living in a daydream
Starting fires just to feel the heat

When it's crowded I'm surrounded and alone
If I shut my eyes then I can rule the world

Cut my nose to spite my face
Pulling teeth just to spite my taste
Beautiful to my mum at least
Dive head first, I'm not that deep

If you're looking, you can find me
Hiding behind things that no one needs
Lately I've been living in a daydream
Starting fires just to feel the heat

Turn the summer to snow, only if I say so
Turn the summer to snow, only if I say so
I'll be living in the afterglow

If you're looking, you can find me
Hiding behind things that no one needs
Lately I've been living in a daydream
Starting fires just to feel the heat
