

The Drip

Trash Boat

The vast majority of law exists to protect capitol
Free markets are constructed, they are not natural
But what do I know?

Cos my intentions aren't perfect. I am selfish. I'm a prick
My complacency for tragedy is making me so sick
My peaks are underwhelming, they just balance out the dips
My anxiety's a luxury, I can't escape the drip

I wish I could stay away
I wish I could stay away

Most models for social studies do very little
To open the public's imagination to radical change
Perpetuating the idea that there is nothing to be done
Fuck it

You wanna change the system but you don't know what it is
You should focus on the problems that you have a chance to fix
The work is underwhelming, that's just the way it is
You wanna build a home but you refuse to lay the bricks

I wish I could stay away
I wish I could stay away
I wish I could stay away
I wish I could stay away

Cos my intentions aren't perfect. I am selfish. I'm a prick
My complacency for tragedy is making me so sick
My peaks are underwhelming, they just balance out the dips
My anxiety's a luxury, I can't escape the drip

I wish I could stay away
I wish I could stay away
I wish I could stay away
I wish I could stay away
